JOINT PARISH NEWS

PENTECOST FLOWER DISPLAYS: As you know the feast of Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Disciples who were full of fear and trepidation and barricaded in a room. Thus our displays reflect some of the themes of this great feast. Red is for the tongues of fire over each person's head, purple for the violent wind within the room and white for the white robes that the early Christians wore when they were baptised. For further details please read Acts 2:1-31.

THOUGHT FOR PENTECOST "The "invincible hope" that the Holy Spirit gives us can be shared with others so that we become "sowers of hope". Cardinal John Henry Newman said that filled with this hope we can become consolers, advocates, helpers and bringers of comfort to others. The poor, the marginalized and the unloved need someone to be their consoler and defender the most." Pope Francis
